Preface

It is true that Finance fuels the administrative engine, of every organisation. Without finance we cannot operate anything rightly. As revenue is derived even from the humblest citizen it is morally incumbent upon the government to spend money efficiently and economically. Financial Administration involves operations designed to raise, spend and account for funds needed to be expended on public services. Budget system is the basis of fiscal management. The Budget is an effective instrument of financial and work management.

This book Indian Financial Administration is prepared in accordance with the syllabus of Financial Administration of Public Administration. This book contains Finance Administration in India, principles, Budget system, centre state relation related to Finance, Financial control, Accounting and Auditing, Financial Commission implementation etc.

The Author is greatly indebted to the Lion Dr.H.Mohammed Ali, the Secretary, Mr.M.Mohammed Afzal Fagas, the Joint Secretary, Dr.G.Edwin Sheela, the Principal of Muslim Arts College, and all the members of the faculty in preparing this book. The Author sincerely hopes that the students will benefit from this book.

Above all, I whole heartedly thank the Lord Almighty for the guidance and protection to prepare this book.

Dr.C.AMOSE.
