PREFACE

Public policy analysis is concerned with government behavior, major policy decisions are taken by the government in areas related to defense, industry, agriculture, educative etc; these decisions produce important and wide ranging consequences. Since policies determine the destiny of the society, scientific knowledge about public policy making needs to be built up. A custom just grown while a policy may be the result of the deliberate action.

This book gives information about different policies, models, policy formulation in India, policy Evolution, and different agencies of policy making. This book is prepared in accordance of the syllabus of public Administration of Manonmaniam Sundaranar University and I hope it would prove useful to the students of public Administration.

The author feels indebted to the secretary Lion Dr. H. Mohamed Ali, Principal Dr. G. Edwin Sheela, the management, Staff and students of Muslim Arts College, Thiruvithancode, for the encouragement in preparing this book.

With warm wishes to its readers
